

The Crown Biblical Financial Study

is changing the way
people are handling their money.

Would you like to be involved in a dynamic ministry that is changing lives? Become a trained life group leader for the Biblical Financial Study! You have the opportunity to lead a life group in understanding stewardship, God's ownership of all things, what the Bible teaches about personal finances, and how to create a budget that works.

The Requirements

Prospective leaders will need to complete 10-15 hours of study and attend a life group leader training class. The cost for the leader training materials is $88 (includes shipping). There is no additional charge for a spouse as a co-leader. No financial background is required—just a desire to help others become financially free to serve God in every area of life. The potential results of your efforts are amazing.

The Results

On average, life group members are

- Reducing their personal debt by 38%
- Increasing their savings by 58%
- Increasing their giving by 70%
- Strengthening their marriages
- Devoting more time to prayer and Bible study
