Additional Discuss Questions

Choosing land is a huge decision, yet the Bible gives no indication that Lot sought the wisdom of others before deciding to take the “better” land. When have you gone ahead on your own and later regretted it?

When might God have placed individuals in your life to help guide you through confusing or difficult times?

What might prevent you from seeking godly counsel?

In what areas of your life could wise counsel be of use today?

Additional Related Scriptures

“Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all. Wealth and honor come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all” (1 Chronicles 29:11-12 NIV).

“Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well” (Matthew 6:33 NIV).

“Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For everything in the world—the cravings of sinful man, the lust of his eyes and the boasting of what he has and does—comes not from the Father but from the world. The world and its desires pass away, but the man who does the will of God lives forever” (1 John 2:15-17 NIV).

“Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord’s will is” (Ephesians 5:15-17 NIV).

Sample Closing Prayer

Thank You, God, for the wisdom You give us to follow godly counsel and battle sinful desires such as greed. Please help us increasingly to demonstrate Your love and generosity to others. Give us the strong desire to serve You faithfully and pursue the best “reward” anyone can receive—a vibrant relationship with You.
