Through Jeremiah, God told His people to build houses and settle down, cultivate the land, marry and have children, and seek peace and prosperity in Babylon. 1. How well are you using your God-given talents in your job?
2. Does your job bring joy or frustration and anxiety? Why?
3. What are your prospects for growth, additional learning and promotion?
4. What are your career goals? Where would you like to be in one year? Three? Five?
5. How well does your income provide for your basic needs?
6. How often do you network or communicate with others in your field?
7. What impact are you having for God in your workplace?
8. How well are you able to balance work with family and friends?

Sample Closing Prayer

Thank You, God, for the plans you have for us and for the hope You provide during life's challenges. Thank you for the opportunity to live for Your purposes, and not our own. Thank You for your many blessings, for our lives, and our ability to work productively to provide for ourselves and our families. Lord, we trust You with our future, and long to be near You. Teach us Your ways, and give us opportunities to share Your love with others. In Jesus' name, Amen.
