

Personality Style Discussion Group Questions

1. Based on what you have learned today about personalities, what did you find out about your personality style that you did not understand before? How are you unique? How will this help you the next time you are tempted to play the “If only I were...” game?
2. If you could tell those authority figures in your life one thing about yourself that would help them to understand you better, what would it be?

Note: This is not a license to bash authority. Understanding our personality styles never gives license to sin.

3. What is the one thing about you that people seem to misunderstand? What things in others do you misunderstand?
4. Plan what you would consider to be the perfect outdoor activity to fit your personality style.