Join us in praying for Program Pfumfudza Crown (PPC) in Madagascar. Pray for protection from crop pests, wisdom for how to best scale the training, and for 70 new trainers who can travel throughout Madagascar as part of a new training initiative.

2

Chuck Bentley and Frank Gonzalez will be speaking and training in Costa Rica and Panama August 9-17. Pray for their safety and good health, meaningful relationships, and for spirit-filled trainings that encourage the local leaders and transform people's hearts.

3

We are praising God for a powerful, spirit-filled Christian Economic Forum. As delegates return home, pray that relationships will continue to strengthen and significant conversations will lead to real breakthroughs in the global issues being addressed.

4

In recent years, The Bible on Money has emerged as a powerful training tool for Pastors and leaders around the world. Pray for our Zoom seminars—that they are well attended and equip our partners to better lead those they serve.

5

As we simultaneously expand our reach and focus on specific projects, we are seeking grants from a variety of values-aligned sources. Please pray for wisdom, that we will pursue the right opportunities, and that God will give us favor and provision through these new relationships.

6

We have been invited to attend a global summit, where we could potentially partner with an organization to expand the church in Central Asia through agricultural business projects. Please pray for the safety of this group as they travel and meet to expand the Kingdom.

7

Please pray for the Crown Stewardship Institute in the DRC as they prepare to train refugees and displaced Congolese. Ask God to provide the funding needed to sponsor 20 students.

8

Pray for our partners with schools, especially those serving the poor, to start the year energized and ready to meet their students' needs.

9

Pray for the team of Crown Partners who recently completed the Budget Coaching program and who are preparing to translate and contextualize the material to be able to roll it out in their countries.

10

Pray for the Vision trips to be held in Costa Rica from Aug 8-13 and Panama from Aug 13-17, Chuck and Frank will be teaching at several churches and will have important meetings with several business leaders in both countries.
